

ORMONDE.

pon consideration of the annered Instrument, whereby it is concluded and accorded that there be a further continuation of the Cessation of Armes, & of all Acts of hostility in this Kingdome, untill the last day of Iuly, 1645. at the houre of twelve of the clocke the same day. We the Lord Lieutenant and Councell doe by this Proclamation in his Majesties Name, Ratifie, confirme and publish the same, And do require all his Majesties Subjects Whom it may concerne by Sea and by Land to take notice thereof, and yeeld all due obedience therunto in all the parts thereof. Given at His Majesties Castle of Dublin, 24. Iuly, 1645.

Geo. Gloyne. Cha. Lambart. Arthur Chichester. Fr. Willoughby. Tho. Lucas. Robert Forth. G. Wentworth.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

HEREAS Articles of Cessation of Armes were agreed and concluded on at Sigginstowne in the County of Kildare, the fifteenth day of September, in the nineteenth year of his Maiesties Raigne, By and between Us the Lord Lieutenant by the name of LAMES Marques of Ormonde, Lieutenant Generall of his Maiesties Arme in the Kingdome of Ireland, For, and in the Name of our Gracious Sovreaigne Lord CHARLES by the grace of God, King of Great Brittaine, France, and Ireland, &c. By vertue of his Maiesties Commission bearing date at Dublin, the last day of August, in the said nineteenth year of his Maiesties Raigne, of the one parte, And Donogh Lord Viscount Muskery, and others authorized by his Maiesties Raigne, of the other parte: Whiche Cessation of Armes was by the said Articles to continue for one whole year, beginning the 15. of September, 1643. at the houre of twelve of the clocke of the said day. And whereas by his Maiesties Commission under the Great Seale of England, dated the fourte and twentieth day of June 1644. We the Lord Lieutenant are authorized to Treat concerning the settling & establishing of a sygne and perfect peace within this Kingdom. And whereas We the Lord Lieutenant by vertue of his Maiesties Authority entrusted with Us as his Lieutenant Generall, and Generall Governo; of this his Kingdom, and by advice of the Counsell, and For and in the Name of his Maiestie on the one part, And the said Lord Vis. Muskery, and others deputed and Authorized in that behalfe by his Maiesties said Subjects now or late in Armes in this Kingdome, of the other parte, did on the fifth day of September last conclude, and accord that there shold be a further Cessation of Armes, & of all Acts of Hostility in this Kingdome, untill the first day of December then next, at the houre of twelve of the clocke of the said day. And whereas We the Lord Lieutenant by vertue of his Maiesties Authority entrusted with Us as his Lieutenant Generall and Generall Governo; of this his Kingdom, and by advice of the Counsell, and For, and in the Name of his Maiestie on the one part, And the said Lord Viscount Muskery, and others Deputed and authorized in that behalfe by his Maiesties said Subjects now or late in Armes in this Kingdome of the other parte, did on the 11. day of November last, conclude and accord that there shold be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes and of all Acts of Hostility in this Kingdome, untill the last day of January, then next, at the houre of twelve of the clocke of the same day. And whereas We the Lord Lieutenant by vertue of his Maiesties authority entrusted with Us, as his Lieutenant Generall and Generall Governo; of this his Kingdome and by advice of the Counsell and for and in the Name of his Maiestie of the one part, and the said Lord Viscount Muskery and others deputed and authorized in that behalfe by his Maiesties said Subjects now or late in Armes in this Kingdome, of the other part, did on the last day of December last conclude and accord that there shold be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes and of all Acts of Hostility in this Kingdome untill the last day of March then next, at the houre of twelve of the clocke of the said day. And whereas We the Lord Lieutenant by vertue of his Maiesties authority entrusted with Us as his Lieutenant Generall and Generall Governo; of this his Kingdome and by advice of the Counsell and for and in the Name of his Maiestie on the one part, And the said Lord Vis. Muskery and others deputed and authorized in that behalfe by his Maiesties said Subjects now or late in Armes in this Kingdome on the other part, did on the first day of March last, conclude and accord that there shold be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes and of all acts of Hostility in this Kingdome untill the last day of April then next, at the houre of twelve of the clocke of the same day. And whereas We the Lord Lieutenant, by vertue of his Maiesties Authority entrusted with Us, as his Lieutenant Generall and Generall Governo; of this his Kingdome, and by advice of the Counsell, and For and in the Name of his Maiestie of the one part, and the said Lord Vis. Muskery, and others deputed and authorized in that behalfe, by his Maiesties said Subjects now or late in Armes in this Kingdome of the other part, did on the one and twentieth day of April last conclude and accord, that there shold be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes and of all Acts of hostility in this Kingdome, untill the twentieth day of May then next, at the houre of twelve of the clocke the same day. And whereas We the Lord Lieutenant by vertue of his Maiesties Authority entrusted with Us as his Lieutenant Generall and Generall Governo; of this his Kingdome and by advice of the Counsell, and for and in the name of his Maiestie of the one part, and the said Lord Vis. Muskery, and others deputed & authorized in that behalfe, by his Maiesties said Subjects now or late in Armes in this Kingdome of the other parte, did on the sixteenth day of May last 1645. conclude & accord that there shold be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes & of all Acts of hostility in this Kingdome untill the fourth day of June then next, at the houre of twelve of the clocke the same day. And whereas We the Lord Lieutenant by vertue of his Maiesties Authority entrusted with Us as his Lieutenant Generall and Generall Governo; of this his Kingdome, and by advice of the Counsell, and for and in the Name of his Maiestie of the one part, And the said Lord Vis. Muskery, and others deputed and authorized in that behalfe, by his Maiesties said Subjects now or late in armes in this Kingdome of the other parte, did on the first day of June 1645. conclude and accord that there shold be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes and of all Acts of Hostility in this Kingdome untill the eighteenth day of June one thousand six hundred forty and five, at the houre of twelve of the clocke the same day.

ighteenth day of June one thousand sir hundred forty and five, at the houre of twelbe of the clocke the same day, and whereas the Lord Lieutenant by vertue of his Maiesties authority entrusted with vs as his Lieutenant Generall and General Governor of this his Kingdome and by advice of the Counsell, and soz and in the name of His Maiestie of the one part and the laid Lord Viscount Muskery and others deputed and authorized in that behalfe by his Maiesties said subiects now or late in armes in this Kingdome of the other part, did on the fourteenth day of June 1645. conclude and accord that there shold be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes and of all acts of hostility in this Kingdome, untill the fourth day of July 1645. at the houre of 12 of the clock the same day. And whereas the Lord Lieutenant by vertue of his Maiesties Authority entrusted with vs as his Lieutenant Generall and General Governor of this his Kingdome, and by advice of the Counsell, And soz and in the Name of his Maiestie of the one part, And Patrick Darcy, and Geffrey Browne, Esquires, deputed and authorized by his Maiesties said Subiects now or late in armes in this Kingdome of the other parte, did on the thirtieth day of June, 1645. conclude and accord that there shold be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes, & of all Acts of hostility in this Kingdome, untill the 18th day of July, 1645. at the houre of 12 of the clock the same day. And in regard we desire to prevent any inconvenience that may happen by a too late continuing of the present continuation so such a longer time as may in likelyhood give the syer and better opportunity towards facilitating the expected peace, we the Lord Lieutenant by vertue of his Maiesties authority entrusted with vs as his Lieutenant Generall and General Governor of his his Kingdome, and by advice of the Counsell, and soz and in the Name of his Maiestie of the one part, and we the said Lord vise.
Muskery, Nicholas Plunket Esq. Sir Rob. Talbot Barronet, Dermot o Bryen, Patrick Darcy, & Geffrey Brown, Esquires. Deputed and Authorized in that behalfe by his Maiesties said subiects now or late in Armes in this Kingdome &c. of the other parte, have concluded and acorded, and it is accordingly hereby concluded and accorded that there be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes and of all acts of hostility in this Kingdome, untill the last day of July, 1645. at the houre of twelve of the clock the same day, upon the like Articles & agreements, to all intents & purposes as are expressed in the said former Articles of Cessation, concluded on at Sigginstown, on the 15 of September, 1643. And as if the laid Cessation first agreed on had continuance untill the last day of July, 1645. at the houre of twelve of the clock the same day. In witnessse whereof, the said Lord Lieutenant to that part of this agreement which remaines with the Lord vise. Muskery, Nicholas Plunket, Sir Robert Talbot, Dermot o Bryen, Patrick Darcy, and Geffrey Browne, hath put his hand and seale, and the said Lord vise. Muskery, Nicholas Plunket, Sir Robert Talbot, Dermot o Bryen, Patrick Darcy, and Geffrey Browne, to that part of this agreement which remaines with the said Lord Lieutenant, have put their hands and seales the fifteenth day of July, 1645. and in the one and twentieth year of His Maiesties Raigne.

Mystery.

N-P/market

Rob. Talbot.

Dermot o Bryen.

Geffr. Browne.